Commodore's Report

Hi There!

They call it modern technology, but I call it modern mysteries! Last month's article was lost in the never-never land of e-mail. I guess someone else has said most of it, or what was going to happen, is now in the past, but I'll try to re-cap the important stuff.

I must begin with a huge THANK YOU to Linda Black for cooking for both the ASMBYC meeting and for the IBOG International Convention dinner. The latter dinner was a big deal, with some 60 plus Blue Gavel members arriving by bus for dinner and drinks, (a half-hour early!). Linda accomplished these tasks with virtually no help. I would also like to thank Alex Hasenclever, Sue Janollari, Greg Wyatt, Frank Chute, Jack Conroy for helping out. If I missed anyone, I apologize. Let me know and I will print a correction!

Our final cruises of the year were great, the kid's cruise and the hors d'oeuvre cruise. Both were well attended, but Emerald Bay attracted some 25 boats with many new members in attendance. Dave and Tina Smith won the hor d'oeuvre contest. Congratulations. Penny and Greg did a great job this year, although some of the distant cruises were not very well attended. Those of us with gas-guzzlers can't quite afford to make it to those far away ports!

The Church Mouse is over and we didn't win. We didn't even catch one! We did however have our usual good time. Stocked up on our wardrobe, drank our share of the islands finest and swam and frolicked in the warm waters of Avalon Bay. The boat ran fine!

Effective immediately, Frank Chute will be the house manager and Greg Wyatt will be assistant house manager. Scott Roseland is heading south with our Fleet Captain Barrie Harnett. Have fun guys, and thank you Scott for all your diligence this past 9 months.

You will notice a letter in your 4th Quarter billing regarding the Recreational Boaters of California. It's a great organization that deserves your support. Please try to send in a donation. Anything you can muster will help.

We are finally down to the end of the year, and only a few functions left before we have a new commodore. We have a Halloween Party coming up on the 30th, as well as the Heather Perkoff series. I will be having my appreciation gathering in November and December brings the Boat Parade and Kid's Christmas party. Mark your calendars before you get too busy.

See you at the club,
Bill

Vice Commodore's Re-

Over 20 boats arrived at Emerald Bay for the hors d'oeuvre cruise! A special thank you to: Cruise Directors Penny & Greg, The Red Devil Buttes for cooking up a storm, assistant cooks: Ted Woolery (carne asada, sausages), Gonzo (chorizo & eggs), Larry Welcome Back Koch (bacon), Rex & Tina, Leslie & Jaime (pancakes), Nicole (potatoes), Kathy Cordova (appetizer organizer), judges, contestants, guitar players, singers and clean up crew.

Next year, I definitely want to party with Leon on Prowler. I hear nighttime is a real dandy on his boat.

Mark Your Calendars:

Swap Meet: Oct 16. Check your storage areas, wipe the cobwebs from your old collectables and bring them down to the club to sell or trade. We're seeking volunteers for flyers, preparation and cooking.

Halloween Party: Oct. 30

Remember, PMYC is a do-it-yourself Club and everything is accomplished by a committee of volunteers such as entertainment, membership, cruising and many others. Anyone interested in volunteering for these positions, please contact me. We could use your help.

See you at The Club.
Nick Cecola

Rear Commodore's Report

WANTED: COOKS
FOR FRIDAY NIGHT
DINNERS.

Smokey's Corner

Just unpacked my sea bag from the Emerald Bay hors d'oeuvre cruise. Believe me, the crossing over to The Isthmus was no pond as it is fondly referred to. It took about 24 hours for the tummy to settle down.

On Friday afternoon, the PMYC folks jumped in their dinghies and went from boat to boat to greet new members and catch up with the old timers. In the evening, the group headed over to the beach for a Red Devil BBQ of carne asada tacos.

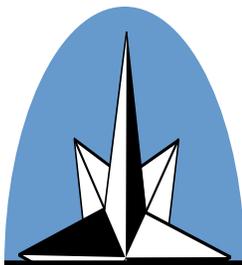

Saturday night featured the famous hors d'oeuvre contest. My idea to present a salmon appetizer turned out to be popular with the masses, however, it didn't receive honorable mention. We were beat out by Dave & Tina's "Shiver Me Timbers" jalapeno stuffed tuna accompanied by a smoking skull presentation. Very clever. Next time I'll have the Mistress work on my plate. Munchies arranged with lemon wedges and dill sprigs just doesn't dazzle the judges anymore. This is getting to be just like the Olympics. Okay, I'll calm down.

I actually didn't physically make it to the beach party. The dinghy landing looked a bit too scary for me. It was fun, though, watching adults, kids, dogs and food get packed into a teeny, weenie rubber boat and head for a rocky shore with breaking waves. I was the sane one who napped on the comfy yacht where there was plenty of Friskies, water and a nice, warm lantern.

Sunday morning brunch consisted of...carne asada again! Plus, bacon, eggs, potatoes, sausages, chorizo, salsa and tortillas. Heard folks say the diet starts on Monday!

I understand from my people that Master Ted is going to cook a BBQ pork roast on Friday, Oct. 8. Contributions go toward the Kid's Christmas Party. See ya there.

Your Friend, Smokey Woolery

ASAP Party

Party Reminder:

at PMYC on October 23, 2004, 5:00 PM to 10:00 (or whenever!)

Purpose:

To raise money for the Association to Save Abandoned Pets (ASAP). I know we have many PMYC members who love animals. I am hoping they will come out to show their support. Luke is an example of thousands abandoned in LA shelters hoping to be adopted.

LUKE - ID#A449304

Cost:

$25 per person or $40 for two people.

Food:

We are going to have a Mexican menu with tortillas and all kinds of delicious stuffing people can choose from. PMYC members who don't want to participate in the event are still welcome to eat for $10. They will have to show their PMYC tags and pay at the door to get a food tag.

Live Music:

5:00 -7:30 PM: Upright (Reggae Band)

7:30-10:00 PM: Mystic Miles (Jazz/Rock Band)

Bar:

All bar proceeds will go to PMYC. Gonzo and friends will be helping tend the bar. Delicious drinks are guaranteed! It will be a good occasion to support two great causes in one fun evening!

Volunteers Needed:

If we have any PMYC members who would like to volunteer, we need people to decorate, serve food, clean up, etc. In addition, if there are members who have boats and can offer 20-30 minute harbor cruises, please let Liz Fox know. Some of the people will be coming to the Marina for the first time and may enjoy a short cruise.

Can't attend?:

If we have any members who can't make it to the party but would like to help rescue animals from the LA shelters, they can make a donation by visiting www.asapnokill.org. Up to 50% of donations can be channeled to PMYC if requested by the donor.

Corporate Sponsors:

If you have a business in MDR (or vicinity) and would like to get name recognition among people who love animals, please support this event. Your business will be recognized on the ASAP website that gets about one thousand new hits a month. www.asapnokill.org

RSVP:

If the chances are more than 50-50 that you will attend this party, please RSVP by sending a brief note to Liz Fox at lizfox1111@aol.com. It will help in planning for food.

Thanks!!

Hors D'Youerve Cruise

Great weather, amazing food and singing around the campfire made this years Hors D'ouerve Cruise a total success.

21 boats attended; Pura Vida, Hemisphere Dancing, Tina Marie, Local Motion, Sand Dollar, Enterprise, Arjuna, On Deck, Sky Bird, Sunrise, Never B Done, Oasis, Prowler, Enchantress, Maitaroa, Gitana, Fiddler's Green, Aussie D, Mary Ellen Rogers, Long Tall Sally, and Dawn.

Kathy Cordova, ably keeping Gonzo, Dermott Cooper, and Greg Lynd from eating everything organized the judging. First place winners were new members Tina and Dave Smith. The winning entry was Chilies stuffed with spicy tuna and displayed with an island theme. Later Dave provided music for a sing-along.

Other winners:

2nd Place Leslie Bond - Pastry shells filled with delightful tiny bay shrimp and tidbits

3rd Place Alex Hasenclever - Baby endive leaves with mango and lobster speared by miniature nautical flags

4th Place Linda Black - Seafood Fondue swimming with lobster, scallops and shrimp

Overall, it was very apparent that a lot of effort went in making the entries.
