Cinco De Mayo Cruise by Megan Bilson

Pmyc cruise -- The Cinco de Mayo Cruise was a howling success. Two boats, "Celebration" with Gregg, Megan, Brutus, and Princess Bilson, and "Drifter" with Bob Gonzales, Rex and Tina Michel, and Leslie Bond braved the weather for what turned out to be a pretty smooth crossing considering forecasts for wind and inclement weather. We tucked away in a very protected corner of Cherry Cove and enjoyed the weekend. It was to be a weekend of much needed rest as Gregg had been working non-stop for the last three months doing demolition and reconstruction on a new building he purchased for the businesses, and the same on the old buildings prior to escrow closing. During the whole process, it was business as usual plus moving to the new location. We did take a lot of siestas, in between fishing, that is. The "Drifter" bunch were nice enough to allow us some peace and made several dinghy trips to the isthmus.

The storm did arrive. It was an incredibly beautiful show with rain and dark, angry clouds swirling high above, circling the cove; the perfect weather to relax and enjoy the elements.

We celebrated Cinco de Mayo Saturday night on "Celebration" with the whole enchilada – margarita contest, carne asada bbq, arroz y frijoles. Of course, Gregg won the margarita contest! Jack and Pam Monroe came by earlier to visit. They were in Cat Harbor for the weekend. It was a GREAT cruise!

Santa Barbara Cruise by Megan Bilson

Thanks to Greg Lynd and Penny Burgess for a wonderful cruise to Santa Barbara Island. It was flat seas, little wind, overcast skies and green water on the way up, but a nice getaway for Long Tall Sally, Celebration, Grenade, Maitairoa, and Prowler. We were also joined by Brad and Diana Roberts, who proudly showed off their "new" Hatteras. I believe Brad is in the process of joining the ranks of FISHERMEN from Sailor. Rumor has it that he did ask Gregg Bilson and Leon Milhon for a few tips.

Speaking of Fishermen, Celebration boarded a very nice 41" halibut caught by Sonny Bilson. Prowler did the same; the only two fish caught that weekend. Green waters do not make for good fishing.

On Saturday Greg Lynd led us on a hike on the island. It was nesting season for the seagulls. We were so excited to see the hundreds of nests, some with two or three spotted eggs in them. It was our Memorial Day Easter egg hunt and like little kids we oooo'd and aaahhh'd when we found one. Except for the incredible view, dry grass and low growing shrubs, there isn't much else on the island. For a couple of us not used to the hiking regimen, it was achy muscles but a day well spent.
